School's out for summer

Photos by Dan Sanderson

Crawford AuSable School District students capped off another school year with a half day on Friday. Teachers and staff, from the AuSable Primary and Grayling Elementary School, waved to the students as they left on busses for their summer break. The goodbye was the last for Grayling Elementary School Principal Angie Camp, who is resigning from her position after eight years to accept an assistant principal's position at Central Grade School for Traverse City Area Community Schools. Above left, teachers Scott Baker, James Brown and Sandy Baynham wave to the students as the school busses roll down the road. Above right, students Jerra Bishop and Daisy Rouse peer out of the school bus window as fellow students and teachers pass by.

Workshop offered to combat wildfires

by Dan Sanderson
Staff Writer

As part of the aftermath of the Four Mile Road wildfire, that damaged 1,350 acres of land and destroyed six homes south of Grayling, the Department of Natural Resources and the Michigan State University Extension have teamed up to educate homeowners to prevent them from having their homes lost or damaged by a blaze.

The MSU Extension is holding a Firewise Workshop at 5:15 p.m. on Thursday, June 26, at the Devereaux Memorial Library, to educate homeowners on how to make their homes and properties safer from a wildfire.

The DNR and the MSU Extension are hoping to attract more interest from area residents in making their homes more firewise following the April 29 wildfire that damaged 1,350 acres south of Grayling and forced dozens of people to evacuate from their homes.

Firewise is a program funded by the U.S. Forest Service to help homes withstand a wildfire.

"Just performing some simple maintenance and practices can allow a home to be spared from a wildfire or can give firefighters enough time and space to get in

Hospital ER employee saves life of movie goer

by Dan Sanderson
Staff Writer

A night out at the movies turned into a life saving opportunity for a Mercy Hospital Grayling employee.

Valerie Jones, an emergency department technician for Mercy Hospital Grayling, and her husband Ken, went to see the new movie, "Indiana Jones and the Kingdom of the Crystal Skull," on Saturday, May 31, at the Gaylord Cinema.

After going out to dinner, the couple got tickets for the 7 p.m. show and got to their seats around 6:45 p.m. Just after settling in for the movie, Jones heard a woman call out that her husband, who has diabetes, was experiencing critical medical issues and needed help.

A registered nurse that was also in the theater came forward to help. Jones also stepped forward and offered assistance. Theatre employees and the nurse asked that the theatre be cleared.

Jones and the nurse then began to administer CPR, with the nurse pumping the man's

Hospital's decontamination unit used to treat oilfield worker

by Dan Sanderson
Staff Writer

An area used to remove and prevent the spread of hazardous materials, in Mercy Hospital Grayling's new emergency room, was utilized for the first time earlier this month when an oilfield worker was exposed to potentially hazardous gases.

The oilfield worker was brought to the emergency room around 11 a.m. on Sunday, June 1, after an explosion occurred at a well site in Beaver Creek Township.

The man, who was brought into the emergency room by a co-worker, was covered with crude oil that could have possibly contained hydrogen sulfide, a hazardous and potentially fatal gas produced at wells called sour gas wells. The particular well where the explosion occurred has tested at 10,000 parts per million for hydrogen sulfide, which could cause instant death if a person was exposed to a gas release, said Jason Dasho, a member of and save the structure," said Susan Thiel, the DNR unit manager for the Grayling forest management unit. "We had some clear examples in the recent Four Mile Road fire."

Lurance Allwardt, an assistant resource protection specialist for the DNR's Grayling forest management unit, will give an overview of the Four Mile Road fire and the dos and don'ts of Firewise principals that were within the fire perimeter. The fire perimeter stretched over a nine square mile area.

"There are no guarantees that you can protect your home in the event of a wildfire, but there are certain things you can do to increase the odds that it will survive," Allwardt said. "It's only doing some minor things, but a little bit of work can go a long way."

Dennis McClure, the director for the MSU Extension office in Montmorency County, conducts the Firewise program in northern Michigan.

McClure said there are 8,000 to 10,000 wildfires that occur across the state, most of which are small yard fires or fires caused by people burning trash or other debris.

McClure said fires, such as the Four Mile Road fire and the Stephan Bridge Road fire in May 1990 which destroyed 5,916 acres of land and 76 homes, helps reinforce the recommendations of the Firewise program.

"There are a number of homes that survived the Stephan Bridge Road fire that were right in the middle of it," McClure said.

The Firewise workshop is free and will last about an hour. The workshop will include information regarding plans that homeowners should consider when constructing, renovating or adding on to a home. The program will also include scenarios that homeowners should think of when designing and installing landscaping, such as considering the local area fire history, the prevailing winds, the seasonal weather, the irrigation requirements and the location of fuel breaks like driveways, gravel walkways and lawns.

"We want to put the information in the people's hands to help their homes survive a wildfire," McClure said.

Firewise principals that will be in the program include:

- Maintaining a home ignition zone that consists of the space 30 feet immediately around the home, extending as far as 100 to 200 feet depending on the characteristics of the surrounding forests or grasslands. Homeowners are encouraged to create a home ignition zone that reduces or eliminates ignition hazards by thinning and spacing vegetation, removing dead leaves and needles and by pruning shrubs and tree branches. They are also encouraged to reduce the location of combustible materials near the home, such as wooden porches, decks, storage sheds, outbuildings, swing sets and fences.

- Homeowners are encouraged to remove plants around their home that contain resins, oils and waxes that burn readily, such as ornamental junipers, paupon, holly, red cedar and young pine. They are also urged to prune trees so that the lowest branches are at least six to 10 feet high, to prevent a ground fire from spreading to the tree tops.

"Utilizing Firewise recommendations does not mean that homeowners have to have a bare yard," McClure said.

- The use of roofing materials including asphalt shingles, metal, slate or clay tile and concrete products. The inclusion of a fire-resistant subroof can also add protection. Homeowners are encouraged to periodically check their roofs for deterioration, including cracks and spaces between the roof tiles. They are also urged to box in their eaves, keep their roofs, gutters and eaves clear of leaves and other debris, and make sure their under-eaves and soffit vents are as close to their roof line as possible.

- Screening or boxing in areas below patios and decks with wire screening.

"I probably had 15 years of leaves under my deck, and you don't think of the problems with embers floating through the air and starting a fire," McClure said.

- Using wall materials that resist heat and flames, including brick, cement, plaster, stucco and concrete masonry, preventing embers from collecting in small nooks and crannies and igniting combustible materials. They are also urged to use tempered or double-pane glass windows to make the home more resistant from wildfire heat and flames.

- Families are urged to form disaster plans prior to a wildfire and use them when wildfire conditions exist. The plan includes posting emergency telephone numbers in a visible place, deciding where to go and how to get to the location, maintaining an emergency water source and relocating pets.

- Identifying their homes and neighborhoods with legible and clearly marked street signs and numbers. They are also urged to maintain a driveway that is at least 12 feet wide with a vertical clearance of 15 feet and a slope of less than five percent to provide easy access to emergency vehicles.

- When maintaining landscaping, homeowners are encouraged to mow their lawns regularly, dispose of cuttings and debris promptly, maintain the irrigation system and use care when refueling garden equipment and storing flammable fuels.

Workshop educators will also detail the requirements for burning permits when wildfire conditions exist, and how to check the severity of wildfires in the area in an effort to prevent home, property damage and financial repercussions.

"Even if your home survives, if you have to call the fire department, you have to foot the bill," McClure said.

Mercy Hospital Grayling's hazardous materials team.

The oilfield worker was taken into the fixed decontamination unit. Emergency room staff tested the air quality in the emergency room and around the man where the oil material was located and found that there were zero results for hazardous gases. The man was then taken into a shower area, where he scrubbed the material from his body with the assistance of emergency room staff.

The oilfield employee was then examined for injuries and exposure to the gas, and was later treated and released after being observed by emergency room personnel.

A safety alarm, worn on the oilfield worker's belt as part of state Occupational Health and Safety Administration regulations, alerted the employees to the gas release so they could evacuate the well site area, Dasho said.

"God was on his side at that time," Dasho said.

Dasho said the decontamination unit allowed the hospital's hazardous materials team to begin treating the man in a matter of minutes. In the former emergency room, Dasho said it would have taken the team at least 30 minutes to erect tents used as a decontamination chamber.

The hospital's multi-department decontamination team includes 15 employees. Three employees from the team helped treat the oilfield worker, utilizing their training in the new unit.

"At no time were any of the patients or hospital staff at risk to exposure from hazardous gases and materials, and that was our number one priority," said Dasho, who has worked in the ER at the Mercy Hospital Grayling for four years and is also the safety officer for the Frederic Township Fire Department and EMS.

Northern A-1 Services of Kalkaska, an industrial and environmental waste disposal firm, was called to the hospital after the oilfield worker was treated to remove the hazardous material from the unit.

GHS fitness center dedicated

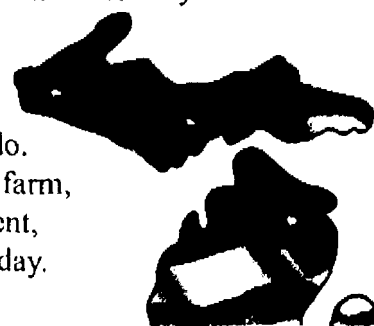

The Kessler Family Fitness Center at Grayling High School was dedicated and unveiled to the public on May 29. The school addition was named the Kessler Family Fitness Center in recognition of Phyllis and Roger Kessler, who donated $50,000 towards the high school weight room and physical fitness center, helping the Crawford AuSable School District meet its goal to raise $100,000 for the addition. Kessler's parents, Loretta (Sorenson) Kessler and G. Jerome Kessler, graduated from Grayling High School in 1931. G. Jerome Kessler also served on the school board for 18 years, serving in various capacities including board president. Roger Kessler's brother, George Kessler, graduated from Grayling High School in 1951, the same graduating class for Phyllis (Ziebell) Kessler. Roger Kessler graduated from Grayling High School in 1954. Younger brother James (Jim) Kessler was a member of the 1959 graduating class, while Thomas Kessler graduated in 1965. A student commons area, which includes a tree donated by Crawford AuSable School Board President Bill Dean, in memory of Alan Johnston from the Class of 1977, was also dedicated during the ceremonies. The fitness center is awaiting inspection of the fire alarm by the Michigan State Police Fire Marshal, and will be available for use for summer weight lifting for the Grayling High School Vikings football teams. Above, Roger, Phyllis, George and Jim Kessler are pictured at the dedication ceremony.

Hospital ER employee saves life of movie goer chest and Jones attempting to breathe air into his lungs. An AED (Automated External Defibrillator) was used by the nurse to shock the man's heart, which helped revive him. The duo of medical employees continued providing CPR until an ambulance arrived and transported the man to Otsego Memorial Hospital.

Jones learned from a nurse that works at both Otsego Memorial Hospital and Mercy Hospital Grayling that the man had survived and is doing well.

"He did make it, and that made me feel proud," Jones said.

Due to the urgency of the situation and due to hospital confidentiality regulations, Jones did not learn the name of the man or the nurse that assisted in providing the life support.

"He was just whisked away by the ambulance," she said.

Ironically, Jones underwent the American Heart Association's CPR training last year when Mercy Hospital Grayling's new emergency department opened for service. Jones' main duties at the hospital are to run the registration desk, to greet patients as they come into the hospital and to get them registered to be seen by emergency room staff. As staffing upgrades for the new emergency room department, the registration staff was trained to become emergency department technicians. The staff can assist nurses, draw blood, do EKGs and assist patients with difficulty from their vehicles.

Pattie Walker, director of emergency services for Mercy Hospital Grayling, said the hospital's administration is thankful that the training came into good use while Jones was having a night on the town.

"It's to her credit and a true sign of a Mercy employee that she stepped forward to help," Walker said.

Jones has worked an overall 25 years at Mercy Hospital Grayling, including 15 years after taking a brief hiatus to work in a local physician's office.

"Val is a very valued employee in the emergency department," Walker said. "She always has a smile, she's our expert on military paperwork and now she's our hero for saving this guy."

When a young girl was brought into the emergency room last week, to have a rash spreading over her body checked out, Jones provided calming reassurance as she was applying her hospital bracelet.

"You have a beautiful bracelet on already," Jones reassured the youngster. "I'll have to add my bracelet to yours."

Jones has worked as supervisor for the hospital's customer access department during her tenure at the hospital, and has volunteered to serve on several hospital "We Care" committees aimed at improving the hospital's services and mission.

"My love is in the ER," she said. "I like helping people and families."

Jones said that she likes to go to the movies a couple of times a month, and particularly enjoys the Indiana Jones films. The Gaylord Cinema staff held the movie for the patrons after the man was taken to the hospital. Jones said it was hard to focus on the movie after she provided the vital life support for the fellow movie patron.

"After I sat down, I realized what I had done, and I got very emotional because I was glad to help," said Jones, who plans to see "Indiana Jones and the Kingdom of the Crystal Skull" at the Rialto Theatre in Grayling.

Jones encourages everyone, who has the opportunity, to learn CPR.

"It is something that everybody should know, because you never know when you're going to run upon a situation," she said.

GOOD TIME

OPINIONS

ALMANACK

by Richard Milliman

Hillary bows out

LET US ALL hope the seemingly interminable campaign for the Democratic nomination for president finally is over for 2008. Sen. Hillary Clinton has suspended her presidential campaign and has urged Democratic unanimity behind Sen. Barack Obama.

It's good somebody finally issued the cease-fire order. The whole campaign has been tiring for the principal candidates, those who cover them, and most of all, for the general public.

Weariness has bordered on disinterest and outright rejection, and that's not good for the process.

About three months ago in this space, I noted that with eight months to go to the election, even though I am a confirmed and experienced buff of presidential campaigns and politics, the 2008 campaign already had taken its toll on me.

"It seems as if every week there's another primary, another caucus, another state, another crisis point in selecting our next president," I wrote.

"Perhaps it's the pervasiveness of campaign coverage. Every network has its own set of experts and devotes untold hours of air time to guess at what's going to happen next.

"Every newspaper and magazine has its own stable of experts, columnists and pundits, all trying to guess what will happen next. Nobody really knows, but they all sound as if they did."

In my mind, in March, I swore off writing anything else about the ongoing campaigns that might, even in the smallest way, add to the political claptrap bombarding the public.

Now, with both major candidates established, I'm free of my self-inflicted silence to join the avalanche of conclusions, surmises, words and guesses on what happens next. I promise to be circumspect in using this freedom.

IT'S INTERESTING to note that Sen. Clinton did not abandon or close down her campaign for president; she suspended it.

The difference is important to the candidate and her backers. With a campaign in suspension and not closed, certain election laws and government reports might apply differently.

In suspension, Ms. Clinton still will be able to solicit money to pay accumulated campaign bills, and to help repay the millions she "loaned" her campaign from personal funds.

I expect she will be nominated formally for president at the Democratic national convention in Denver in August, permitting one last grand gesture and fervent demonstration for her history-making campaign. Some holdout delegates might well cast votes for her at the convention, too.

And, if some totally unforeseen development should bring the nomination into question again, Sen. Clinton is set to go into high gear on short notice.

As I listened on TV to Ms. Clinton's speech as she left the field open to Sen. Obama, I wondered how difficult it must have been for Sen. Clinton to heap such praise on the same person upon whom, as candidate Clinton, she had heaped such scorn for so many months as empty, unprepared and not qualified to be president.

But Hillary Clinton delivered an excellent and at times inspiring address, and she has done more than required to help bring unity to Democratic efforts in November.

SO NOW IT'S all over but the shouting for Sen. Barack Obama on the Democratic ticket and Sen. John McCain on the Republican ticket.

Well, not quite. The last I looked, US Rep. Ron Paul of Texas still was an official and active Republican candidate for the nomination.

Barring a barrage of miracles, he cannot win the nomination, of course. Sen. McCain has many more pledged delegates than needed to secure the nomination, but Rep. Paul still is an official candidate.

Why? Because it gives him an official platform, much broader than his seat in Congress, to spread his gospel of limited government, low taxes, individual responsibility and other principles he has held for so long.

Rep. Paul likely will be nominated at the Republican convention in Minnesota in a couple of months, and his backers will have a grand demonstration, hoping to attract media coverage and public recognition.

Mr. Paul may not have enough support to win a presidential nomination, but around my section of Michigan, I still see bumper stickers and lawn signs supporting Ron Paul for President.

VIEWPOINT

By Kirk Wakefield, Crawford County Sheriff

The Michigan Sheriff's Association wants to help consumers avoid costly check cashing scams

Sheriff Wakefield wants to make sure residents of Crawford County are aware of "International Lottery" and "Grant" check scams that are on the rise across Michigan.

Residents are being sent "certified" checks for approximately $4,900 with a letter stating this money is the first part of their winnings or grant. The letter instructs the recipient to deposit the check into their account and send approximately $3,000 to a post office box, in Ontario or other far off places, to pay for taxes, insurance, handling, etc.

Often, by the time your bank determines the original check is counterfeit, your check for "fees" has already cleared and you are out of the amount you sent plus whatever fees your bank charges for a bounced check.

The Better Business Bureau has seen fake checks, that are supposedly drawn on local banks, local manufacturers and local retailers, which are high tech copies printed on standard check writing forms.

"In the past, in order to get a certified check, you had to have the money in your account to cover it," said Sheriff Wakefield. "However, the increased use of computers has made it easier for con-artists to simulate these checks." It is because of this "good as gold" logic, that some older people still believe to be true, that they often fall to this scam.

If you receive an unexpected check in the mail you need to do some research before depositing it to your account and forwarding a check of your own.

Why did you receive this check? Did you enter a lottery or seek a grant?

Why would this bank, manufacturer or retail establishment be sending me a partial check and asking me to send them a check from my own account.

Does the company whose name is on the check actually exist at the address stated?

Check with the Better Business Bureau or the Attorney General before cashing any check that seems questionable.

Always remember that the Michigan Lottery will never expect you to send money to get your prize.

"Unfortunately, there is always someone out there willing to steal from those that can least afford it," said Sheriff Wakefield. "By following these simple steps, Crawford County residents can avoid becoming victims."

EDITOR

Open letter to the DNR

To the editor:

Mr. Dave Freed (Chief of Land Facilities for the DNR) please, please, hold your ground.

Don't sell us out to those that would try to pressure you with a letter writing campaign to state officials urging the DNR to provide a letter to Axiom Entertainment, for a theme park in Grayling on state land, saying, "they (DNR) will sell the entire tract of 1,800 acres for their project."

Sponsoring this letter writing campaign is the Crawford County Economic Development Partnership (CCEDP).

They want you to commit to selling the land before there is documentation that the developers have full financing for the project and before they provide a phased building plan on how the park will be developed.

Sounds like a subprime mortgage to me and we all know where we end up with that.

Keep your butts to yourself

To the editor:

Smoking cigarettes today has become quite expensive for one self. My main concern with smoking is the butts that are thrown out onto the streets.

Cigarette butts clog up sewers and clutter the streets, sidewalks and yards of our tax payers. To all of the licensed drivers that smoke, is it too hard to ask to use an ash tray in the vehicle you are driving? Many times, I have witnessed drivers just tossing one out the window. Second hand smoke is harmful, so why smoke with children in the car? Shame on you for that. Instead of buying a pack of cigarettes, use the money on fuel for your vehicle. Before one decides to light up, do your homework and see what ingredients go into making a cigarette. So, keep your butts to yourself, not out the window. I get tired of picking them up off my lawn.

Take responsibility for your actions

To the editor:

Someone broke our classroom window at the AuSable Primary School on Friday, May 30. We care about our school and are sad this happened.

We were disappointed because we usually feel safe here and when someone comes in when they're not supposed to, it makes us scared.

We are angry because it will cost a lot of money to fix the window. This money could be spent on things to make our school better.

Why would someone want to do this? We think it was on purpose. Maybe it was for fun. It was not fun for us to come in and find our window boarded up.

We hope that whoever did this will take responsibility. You need to say you're sorry and do something to help make it better. Finally, we ask that you do not do something like this again, please.

Do you believe in karma?

To the editor:

I would like to respond to the person who stole the two cone shaped hanging baskets from two graves at the Frederic cemetery this past weekend.

You must be a desperate, low life cretin to steal from the dead. I do believe in karma and I am sure that it will come back around to you. Meanwhile, hope that I don't find out who you are. Believe me, I will be looking. I can only hope that you will return these planters to the graves as a decent person would do. Meanwhile, they will not be replaced.

Buy American

To the editor:

Now that the price of gas is over $4 per gallon, everybody is looking for somebody to blame. The countries with the oil are charging too much. The government should be controlling the price. They should use our reserves or they should reduce the tax on gas.

I think that if you are looking for someone to blame, we should look in the mirror. It started back when we started buying everything made in Japan, and then it was China and India.

We showed those American Companies for charging us too much. Now, the companies have either closed up, downsized or moved to another country. What did we gain? We saved a few dollars at the store, but most of our manufacturing jobs are lost.

By buying everything made in other countries, we are improving their standard of living. Now that they are making the big money, they are trading in their bicycles and scooters for cars.

Guess what that means? Now they want a lot more gas.

It's a matter of supply and demand. We made them well off and now they want our gas.

We are wasting our tax dollars on ethanol. It gives us poorer performance and worse mileage. It takes almost as much energy to produce as we get, so we save two dollars at the pump. The making of ethanol caused the price of corn to go way up and we spent an extra four dollars at the store for our food, so what did we gain?

The tree huggers won't let us drill in northern Alaska, or in the gulf near Florida, so that we can produce our own oil.

France gets 80 percent of its electricity from nuclear plants, but we are still in the horse and buggy stage. Wake up people, we created the problem, and it is up to us to fix it.

Buy American and stop listening to the special interest groups.

Is reclassification of newly paved roads an option?

To the editor:

I live off of the section of North Down River Road that is currently under construction for repaving. I, and the other members of the neighborhood, are pretty happy about having a nice section of smooth road to drive on. Especially after years and years of patches on top of patches and a road that sets your teeth-rattling.

Now the county wants a millage to pursue more road repairs and similar projects. Myself, I would vote for it, but only under one condition, that they help these road improvements last by re-classifying the use of roads like North Down River Road and other secondary roads (Wakeley Bridge Road, etc.). Why not restrict heavy truck and vehicle use by some form of year-long frost laws or some other means of weight or speed enforcement?

We're going to get a nice smooth road to drive on the rest of the summer, and so will every other overweight vehicle in the county. Unfortunately, I don't think it will last long the way the road is used. I've witnessed a lot of heavy equipment caravans and other big truck traffic on North Down River Road over the years, all pounding along to their job sites on that little asphalt road. And now, with it smoother, the temptation will be even greater. I'd like to see these roads last a little longer.

Does the idea have any merit or not?

Grayling Post Office announces new hours

The Grayling Post Office's new hours for retail (window) services, effective June 16, will be Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. On Saturday, the retail counter will be open at 9:30 a.m. and close at noon. The hours were changed to adjust to a decline in retail service transactions and mail volume at the Grayling Post Office.

"Postal Service consultants reviewed our retail operations against service and operations targets," said David Hoecherl, Grayling officer in charge. "They recommended that by adjusting hours, we could increase productivity and still meet the need for retail services for the vast majority of our customers."

According to Hoecherl, the recent review of retail operations at the Grayling Post Office was part of a standardized procedure to help post offices match the availability of retail services to their actual workload.

"Finding ways to improve efficiency will enable us to meet customer expectations for service while driving costs out of our system," said Hoecherl. "Keeping our operating costs as low as possible will allow us to maintain universal mail service at affordable rates for all Americans; especially since our operations are not funded by taxpayer dollars."

For customers who only need stamps, Hoecherl says the Postal Service offers a variety of ways to buy stamps without making the trip to the post office.

"You can order stamps by mail by calling 1-888-ASK-USPS and requesting a "stamps by mail" form, or by phone by calling 1-800-STAMP 24. You can also order stamps online at www.usps.com," Hoecherl says.

Tee it up at the O'Mercy Classic

A few reservations are still available for Mercy Hospital Grayling Auxiliary's 19th Annual O'Mercy Classic, at Fox Run Country Club on Friday, June 20.

Registration begins at 9 a.m. with a shotgun start at 10 a.m. Participation is limited to the first 130 registered golfers in the two-person scramble, which will be followed by dinner.

The tournament will include a hole-in-one competition, a closest to the pin contest, a longest drive contest and awards for top scores and low gross scores for men, women and pairs. A new Chrysler PT Cruiser will be one of the prizes, along with a Calloway putter, a round of golf for four with cart at Treetops Resort, and a round of golf for four at the Otsego Club and Resort.

Cost is $80 per golfer, including a hot dog luncheon at the halfway house, beverage tickets, eligibility for awards and prizes and a dinner buffet. Additional dinner reservations are available at $20 per dinner.

Each year, the Mercy Hospital Grayling Auxiliary sponsors the O'Mercy Classic. Proceeds from this year's event will support the hospital in its mission as well as contribute toward facility improvement and equipment.

"The two-person scramble format has raised thousands through the years for new equipment and improvements to the hospital's facility," said Scott Hoffer, volunteer services specialist for Mercy Hospital Grayling. "The money raised by this event makes a real difference and we are so appreciative of everything the Auxiliary does to support it," he said.

Volunteers and hole sponsors are still needed. To register for the O'Mercy Classic, or for more information, call 989-348-0527.

Grayling High School class of 1978 to hold 30 year reunion

The Grayling High School class of 1978 will be holding 30th-year reunion events at the end of June. Anyone who was part of the class of 1978, even if they did not go through commencement, is invited to attend any or all of the events.

An icebreaker will be held at Spikes, on the I-75 Business Loop, on Friday, June 27, at 7:30 p.m. The event is free.

On Saturday morning a golf outing will be held. Contact Beth DeVos Wheeler for tee times and details at 989-348-2438.

On Saturday evening, June 28, the reunion dinner will be held beginning at 6 p.m. at the Grayling Country Club on the I-75 Business Loop in Grayling. Dinner menu will include a choice of steak or chicken and fixings. Dress is casual. A D.J. will be on hand. The cost for the event is $20 a person, or $38 a couple. Mail checks to Beth DeVos Wheeler at the address listed below.

The reunion committee is still trying to locate the following alumni: Lorrie Balch, John Belcher, Marcia Bowden, Joe Bushey, Beth Churchman, Doug Dehart, Mark Doyle, Billie Eggert, Randy Erickson Wethy, Donita Heckert, Kim Helsel, Gerald Hoesli, Donna Keene, Karla Kelsey, Janet Kucharek, Kim Lobsinger, Tim Lobsinger, June McClelland, Nori Pieknik, Mark Poll, John Rioux, Frank Spencer, David Weaver and Claude Wright. If you have information on how to contact any of the above classmates, please contact a committee member.

Classmates interested in attending any of these events should contact a committee member as soon as possible: Jodi Piper Potter, (989) 348-7517; Beth DeVos Wheeler, (989) 348-2438; Kurt Kolka, (989) 732-4673; or Bonnie Partello Fahler, (989) 732-9302.

Those who cannot attend the reunion events are encouraged to send letters or e-mails with photos to Class of 1978, c/o Beth DeVos Wheeler, 3029 Palmer Place, Grayling, MI 49738 or classof78@casdk12.net. Information on the reunion is also listed on the Alumni page at the Crawford AuSable School District Web site at http://www.casdk12.net/alumni_information.htm.

Church fund-raiser benefits local Toys for Tots program

The members of the Mt. Hope Lutheran Church, Grayling, recently held a bake sale, on Sunday after church, to raise funds for the local Toys for Tots program.

Money that they raised during their bake sale was matched with a grant from Thrivent Financial for Lutheran Care in Communities, making a combined total of $600.

With the money raised, Terry Tody, a member of Mt. Hope Lutheran Church, attended the Scholastic Book Fair held at the Grayling Middle School on May 14. She purchased 165 books for area youth. These books will be donated to the Toys for Tots program in Crawford County to be distributed this coming Christmas.

The Bible Speaks

Are You Unsaved?

Romans 8:1-4 gives assurance of salvation to those who are justified through faith in Jesus Christ. They face no condemnation from God's law, no control under law, no failure under law, and no unrighteousness under law. Now in Romans 8:5-8 we are taught the stark contrast between the unsaved and the saved. "5For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit." (Rom. 8:5). The unsaved live for the things of this world rather than obeying God. "16For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world." (1 John 2:16). The unsaved natural person finds the things of God to be foolish, unreasonable, and illogical. "14But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned." So the unsaved follow only their selfish fleshly desires in life.

Second, the unsaved follow fleshly destruction in life. "6For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace." (Rom. 8:6). "8For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting." (Gal. 6:8). "5For when we were in the flesh, the motions of sins, which were by the law, did work in our members to bring forth fruit unto death." (Rom. 7:5). "23For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." (Rom. 6:23). "14But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed. 15Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin; and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death." (James 1:14,15). The life of the unsaved degenerates downward toward discouragement, disease, and death.

Third, the unsaved follow fleshly defilement of self. They rebel against God and become a god unto themselves. "7Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be." (Rom. 8:7). They hate God's person as their enemy, "7Because the carnal mind is enmity against God..."

They hate God's precepts for exposing their sin, "...for it is not subject to the law of God..." They hate God's power because of their own weakness, "...neither indeed can be." They hate God's pleasure because they live only for their own flesh. "8So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God." (Rom. 8:8). They really believe the world would be a much better place to live without God, the Bible, Jews and Christians.

When the last great 7 years of tribulation come upon the earth, the unsaved will not repent, but will try to hide from God in the rocks and mountains. (Rev. 6:15,16). When severe plagues come they will not repent of their idolatry, but will blaspheme and curse God rather than repent. (Rev. 9:20; 16:9-11). "Repent ye, and believe the gospel." (Mark 1:15). "...In the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation." (2 Cor. 6:2). Pastor "B"

LIBRARY NEWS

"Metamorphosis at Your Library" is part of the "Catch the Reading Bug" summer programs held at the Frederic Community Library. On Saturday, June 14, at 11 a.m., morph into a cool you and learn about changes from the inside out. Stories, a craft and a snack will be included for older kids and teens.

Friends of the Crawford County Library will meet at the Devereaux Memorial Library on Tuesday, June 17, at 9 a.m. Patrons are encouraged to attend and join this group dedicated to supporting the library.

Join Miss Connie for the "Catch the Reading Bug Story Hour" on Wednesday, June 18, from 11 a.m. - noon. At the Devereaux Memorial Library, preschool age children will enjoy stories, crafts and a light snack.

'Twas the Night Before

Summer, and all through the land, children were dreaming of sugar beach sand. Celebrate the start of summer at the Devereaux Memorial Library on Friday, June 20, at 6 p.m. Wear your pajamas to the library and listen to the new children's book written by Traverse City author Anne Margaret Lewis. Luna Bee May, a playful Luna Moth, will take you on a summer adventure ... lemonade included.

Card of Thanks

Thank you to our family, friends and neighbors for your prayers, cards and visits during Leon's surgery at the University of Michigan Hospital, and during his recovery at home. It is greatly appreciated.

Paul Hartman Joins Cornell Agency

Cornell Insurance is happy to announce that Paul Hartman has joined the Agency, effective June 1st. He will handle all lines of insurance, and will be a welcome addition to our professional staff.

Paul, who grew up in Grayling, is the son of Mark and Marilyn Hartman. After graduation from GHS in 1994, he attended Central Michigan University, graduating in 1998, with a major in management and marketing. Following college, he joined Nationwide Insurance, as an agent in the Grand Ledge Area. He brings a decade of solid experience and product knowledge to his new position.

Paul is married to the former Heather Bindschattel, who is also a graduate of GHS and CMU. She is currently employed as an account service representative with Green Path, a financial counseling firm.

The Hartmans will be making their home at Bear Lake, along with their two daughters, Hailey and Lauren. They are happy to be back in Grayling, and look forward to being active members of the community.

Cornell Agency, Grayling's oldest and largest insurance firm, is located at 201 Huron Street and is a full-line independent agency, representing Auto-Owners, Citizens, Pioneer, Progressive, Blue Cross-Blue Shield, and others.

OBITUARIES

Gloria Post

July 2, 1925 - June 4, 2008

Gloria Post, 82, of Grayling, passed away on June 4, 2008.

She was born in Frederic; on July 2, 1925, to the late Elmer and Margaret Corsaut.

Her nickname from birth was "Buddy" because she looked like a rosebud.

She married Morden A. Post on March 9, 1946, in Frederic. They were married just short of 60 years before he preceded her in death in March of 2006. They started out as a young, resourceful couple that used peach crates as coffee tables. Together, they loved to travel, play card games and go camping with her family. They were both longtime members of St. John Lutheran Church in Grayling. Morden and Gloria also enjoyed hunting and fishing together. Her children claimed she cooked the world's best venison ... and sometimes it was legal.

She was daughter, sister, wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, friend and self-professed "shopaholic" and "chocoholic." Later in life, you could always find her sitting in her swing on Michigan Avenue watching the world go by. Little did she know, the world was watching her too (curlers and pajamas in tow). She lead a long life of good food and good friends. The food was so good that she was always on a diet, but had a not-so-secret stash of donuts, ice cream and candy bars.

She was fortunate to have many loves in her life, her husband, her family, her pets and her church. Her depth of character is best exemplified through her favorite quote: "Don't walk in front of me, I may not follow; Don't walk behind me, I may not lead; Walk beside me and just be my friend."

She is survived by her daughters, Gayle McClain and Debra Sala, both of Grayling; son, Rick (Cindi) Post, of Raleigh, N.C.; four grandchildren: Jason Post, Brandi (McClain) Varela, Antonio and Nicholas Sala; and two great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Morden; and son-in-law, David McClain.

A graveside memorial service was held at Oakwood Cemetery in Frederic, with Pastor David Blake officiating.

Condolences may be sent to www.sorensonlockwood.com. Arrangements made by Sorenson-Lockwood Funeral Home.

Ruth E. Moore

1922-2008

A memorial service for Ruth E. Moore will be held at 10 a.m., on Saturday, June 14, at Michelson Memorial United Methodist Church, Grayling.

In memory of

My loving husband, Francis P. Decker, who passed away one year ago, June 13, 2007.

My darling how I miss you, every minute of every day. Please help me my dear Lord, to see it had to be your way. People say time will make it better, but I can't believe that's true, cause the days and nights seem so empty when I'm not beside you.

Sadly missed by wife, Linda; daughter, Rose Gildner; sons, Tim Decker, Leroy Decker; grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Card of Thanks

The family of Gloria Post would like to thank the EMTs for their quick response. We would also like to thank Charlene Scheer and Tom Slavins for their help, compassion and for taking control of a difficult situation.

We would also like to thank everyone that has remembered us in our time of need.

The Grayling Junior Equestrian Team celebrates its first place finish at Saturday's Sand Lake meet.

Equestrian team wins Sand Lake meet

All nine members of the Grayling Junior Equestrian Team scored points during the squad's first place finish at a meet held at Sand Lake (near Tawas) on Saturday, June 7.

"The riders in the showmanship, pleasure and equitation classes showed against tough competition, and won key classes to keep the meet close through the hot afternoon. The speed riders then turned and burned it up, dominating their classes as a team. (They) won the first trophy in Grayling's equestrian history," someone associated with the team said.

Individual results for the team included:

Elaine DesEnfants - 3rd, English Bareback; 4th, Western Bareback; 5th, Hunt Seat Fitting & Showing; 5th, Hunt Seat Equitation; 6th, Western Equitation.

Ciara Johnson - 1st, Clover Leaf; 1st, Two Man Relay; 3rd, Dash.

Andrea Malm - 1st, Equitation Over Fences; 4th, Hunt Seat Equitation; 5th, Western Equitation; 8th, Western Fitting & Showing; 8th, Western Bareback.

Kara Malm - 1st, Western Equitation; 6th, English Bareback; 7th, Western Fitting & Showing; 7th, Hunt Seat Equitation; honorable mention, Hunt Seat Fitting & Showing.

Jo Hamlin - 1st, Saddleseat Pattern; 2nd, Saddle Seat Equitation; 2nd, Equitation Over Fences; 4th, Two Man Relay; 8th, English Bareback.

Dominique Linderer - 4th, Two Man Relay; 6th, Dash; 7th, Clover Leaf.

Meagan Malm - 2nd, Western Equitation Walk/Trot; 2nd, Hunt Seat Equitation Walk/Trot.

Logan Miller - 4th, Western Equitation Walk/Trot.

Tara Pummell - 1st, Flag Race; 1st, Dash; 1st, Two Man Relay; 2nd, Clover Leaf.

The Grayling Junior Equestrian Team is coached by Ann Malm of Grayling and Liz Koscielniak, owner of the Gaylord Equestrian Center.

Coldwell Banker Cornell Realty moves to new home

by Dan Sanderson
Staff Writer

Coldwell Banker Cornell Realty moved to a new location on the I-75 Business Loop, filling the final vacancy in the Milltown Plaza.

Coldwell Banker Cornell Realty recently moved into its new offices, located at 2323 South I-75 Business Loop, after a five-month stay at 6248 M-72 West.

The relocation of the offices coincide with the return of the ownership of the real estate firm to Jim VanderLaan, the president of Covenant Capital, a Lake City based real estate development firm who owns the Milltown Plaza property.

Cornell Realty was founded by Bud and Bea Cornell in the 1940s. The couple also founded Cornell Insurance. Paul Thomson purchased the business and operated it for several years before selling it to VanderLaan in 1997.

VanderLaan owned Coldwell Banker Cornell Realty for five years, then sold the business to real estate broker Laurie Jamison. The ownership of the business transitioned back to VanderLaan with the move into the new offices.

Jamison says the move was good for both business owners. VanderLaan is not a licensed real estate broker, so Jamison is staying on to manage the business. The agreement also allows her to be more hands on with the area real estate market.

"I wanted to focus on customers service, listing property and selling property, so this was a good fit for both of us," she said.

Jamison said the business had initially intended to locate in the Milltown Plaza, but had to wait to determine how much space Mercy Home Care and Hospice would need in the building. They also share the same space with Pizza Hut Italian Bistro, H & R Block, Dollar General, Save-A-Lot and Advance America Cash Advance.

Coldwell Banker Cornell Realty, Cornell Insurance, Luther's Barber Shop, the Essence of Beauty Hair Salon, H & R Block and the American Federation of Teachers Union offices relocated last year when VanderLaan sold the property at the corner of the I-75 Business Loop and Huron Street for the Walgreens store.

VanderLaan retains property where Carquest and the Department of Human Services offices are located, and also owns several residential properties in the community.

Jamison said the business partners are pleased to have Coldwell Banker Cornell Realty back in the center of Grayling's business activity and to have a shopping plaza with full occupancy in the community.

"We kind of feel like we came back home," Jamison said.

Coldwell Banker Cornell Realty employs two real estate brokers, six sales agents and an office manager.

Spike's Keg O' Nails marks 75th anniversary

by Dan Sanderson
 Staff Writer

On May 29, the owners and patrons of Spike's "Keg O' Nails" celebrated 75 years of enjoying burgers and cold brews.

Harold "Spike" MacNeven opened Spike's "Keg O' Nails" for business the day after Prohibition ended (May 29, 1933). MacNeven held a contest with a $20 first prize to name his new business. The winning entry, "Keg O' Nails," was submitted by Grayling resident Laura (Welch) Smith, reflecting the area's lumber and timber heritage.

An anniversary celebration, which included serving 75 cent burgers and brews, handing out commemorative balloons and selling t-shirts, was held at the landmark Grayling restaurant and tavern. The anniversary will continue to be celebrated throughout the year.

"It was awesome, and it was nice to see the local customers turn out for the anniversary celebration because we are here for Grayling," said Darcie Bowers, who owns Spike's "Keg O' Nails" along with her husband Jeremy and Arron and Kelly Millikin.

Spike's "Keg O' Nails" has occupied the same location since 1933. After the original building burned to the ground, MacNeven immediately rebuilt a new tavern with an attached bowling alley. That building also burned down and was replaced with the existing structure. There have only been four subsequent owners, Herb and Mary Holmes (1958-1967), Lon and Margaret Qualls (1967-1980) and Kathy Bourrie (1980-2005). The Bowers and Millikins assumed ownership of Spike's in 2005.

MacNeven was involved in promoting Grayling's canoeing heritage even before Spike's "Keg O' Nails" was opened. The business has been longtime sponsors of the "Spike's Challenge Race" during Grayling's Milltown Festival.

Over the years, Spike's earned the motto, "The Meeting Place of the North," as a regular stop for tourists visiting and passing through Grayling, soldiers training at Camp Grayling and locals in the community.

"People stop here because of the history," Bowers said. "It's good service and it's a good place to eat."

Card of Thanks

We would like to thank everyone who has helped us since our fire on June 1. Special thanks to the Grayling and Frederic Fire Departments, GMS, GHS, Hank and Sue Carroll, Mike and Jessica

Bailey, Steve and Wanda Jackson, Jesse and Dawn Reiness, Lisa and Brian Kragg, Mercy Hospital and Mercy Manor employees, Weyerhaeuser, Scott Parkinson and Trevor Goodenough, and to the lady who gave my daughter her shoes that evening. All of you will forever be in our hearts, our thoughts and our prayers.

Sincerely,
 the Jensen family

GMS wrings out the weather for FUNFEST

Heavy rains and cloudy skies did not dampen the fun for students and staff from Grayling Middle School, who celebrated their annual FUNFEST at Hanson Hills on Friday, May 30. FUNFEST is the one day of the year that the entire school packs up and heads for Hanson Hills for a day of outdoor play and adventure. Even the staff and food service work from Hanson Hills for the day.

The Parent Involvement Team (PIT) has been hosting the event for several years and this year's event included the 3rd Annual Spring Trail Run, organized by PE teacher Brad Wagner.

125 participants competed in the 5K trail race.

"It's the most coveted event of the day, and we are so pleased to have so many students and staff participate. It is not so much as how you finish but that you finish the race. The top finishers are as proud as the bottom finishers, and most participants never thought they could run a 5K race," said Mr. Wagner.

There were several sponsors for the Trail Run, that provided a shirt for each participant that competed in the race, including the Grayling Youth Boosters, the North Central Area Credit Union, David Sabin, the GMS Student Council, PIT, Ultimate Direction, Avita Water and the Grayling Rotary.

Devon Dawson was the overall winner of the race with a finishing time of 18:04. Other top finishers included Craig Collen, Chris Phillips, Tyler Powers, Jake Swander, David Bergan, Wesley Dean, Nick Wells, Jeff Lavigne and Michael Beck. Chris Kucharek was the first staff finisher with a time of 22:49, or 14th position overall.

The PIT crews worked with local sponsors, St. Francis Episcopal Church and the Kodiak Group, to bring in three surprise events including a velcro wall, an inflatable obstacle course and a giant slide.

"The rain seemed to add to the fun with the inflatables," said PIT leader Tracy Wilson. "The rain made the obstacle course slippery and extra fun creating a lot of laughter on the course."

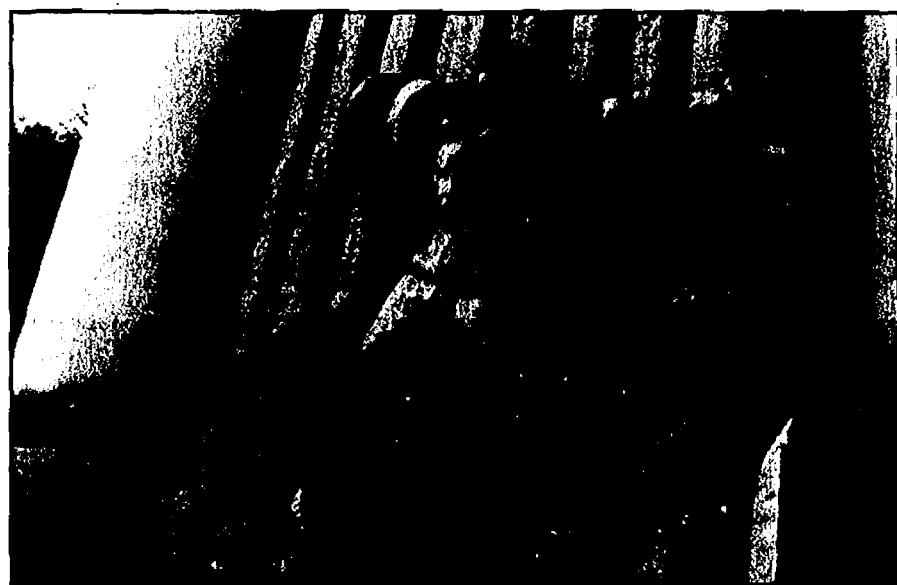

The velcro wall offered a new challenge to students. Participants had to put on a soft suit and attempt to stick themselves to the wall at the end of the inflatable.

"It was much more challenging than it looked and students seemed to have more success sticking themselves to the carpet while trying to get in and out of the suits," said Wilson. Other FUNFEST events included kayaking on the pond, sponsored

Fish Hatchery's Whopper of a Fish Tale winners announced

The Grayling Fish Hatchery's search for a "Whopper of a Fish Tale" came to end on Memorial Day weekend.

In March, the Grayling Fish Hatchery Steering Committee asked students to write a fish tale so tall, that it outshined the Paul Bunyan tall tales.

Board members from the Grayling Fish Hatchery Steering Committee, along with Amy Johnson, the general manager for the Grayling Burger King, read 160 very creative tall tales submitted by Grayling Elementary School and Grayling Middle School students for the contest.

The Whopper of a Fish Tale winner was Emily Leslie, a Grayling Middle School sixth grader, for her tall tale "Big Bertha." Big Bertha was a camp cook during Grayling's logging days.

"She was round like a barrel. She had a mole the size of basketball," Leslie wrote in her story.

Leslie won a $50 U.S. Savings bond from the Grayling Fish Hatchery Steering Committee, a seasonal pass to the fish hatchery and 25 Whoppers from Burger

King.

The Fish of a Tale winner was Alayna Cobb, a Grayling Elementary School third grader. Her tall tale, "A Big Fish and Two Small Bugs," featured characters Jerry and Carrie, who packed some larva sandwiches and headed off to the fish hatchery for an adventure. Cobb received certificates for five Whoppers from Burger King.

Molly Leslie, also a third grader, won the Fry of a Fish Tale for her tall tale "Michigan's Mighty Fisherlady." Molly's fisherlady was getting pulled by an enormous fish on her line. The fish pulled her all night. In the morning, she ended up in Lake Huron. Molly Leslie won certificates for five orders of medium fries from Burger King.

The Small Fry of a Tale was won by Nicholas Hardick, a fourth grader, for his story "The Talking Fish." Hardick received certificates for five orders of small fries from Burger King.

Guppy of a Tale winners were Mark Beckwith, fourth grader, for his story, "It!", and Rachel Money, a fifth grader, for her tall tale "The Prize Pike." They each received certificates for three kids meals from Burger King.

Winners of the Whopper of a Fish Tale contest were invited to be part of the Grayling Fish Hatchery's float during the AuSable Festival parade.

NEMCOG presents options to improve traffic in Grayling area

The Northeast Michigan Council of Governments (NEMCOG) is in the process of studying the transportation system in the Grayling area. NEMCOG began the study in the summer of 2006, to help assess local and regional traffic issues, and has been working to develop various ways to improve traffic operations and safety. NEMCOG wishes to present these various options to the public before the project is complete.

This project is being administered by NEMCOG and overseen by a steering committee of local representatives and MDOT staff. The Steering Committee includes representatives from Crawford County, Camp Grayling, the City of Grayling, Crawford County Economic Development Partnership, Beaver Creek Township and Grayling Township.

The study is being funded through federal-aid transportation funds and will cost approximately $150,000. It involves analysis of the existing and future traffic conditions and identification of problems like slow traffic, unsafe conditions, and breaks in needed traffic routes. The study also researched possible solutions to correct current and expected problems, and wishes to present these to the public. NEMCOG gathered initial public input in December of 2006, and throughout 2007, in the form of public meetings, interviews, and polling, all of which have been considered during the study process.

NEMCOG is working with a consultant team including URS

Corporation, a national transportation engineering firm with an office in Traverse City, R. Clark Associates, a landscape architecture firm from Traverse City, and LSL Planning Inc., a community planning firm located in Grand Rapids and Royal Oak.

NEMCOG will be hosting a third public meeting on June 24, 2008, between 7 p.m. and 9 p.m. at the Grayling City Hall. Various options to improve transportation issues will be presented in an informal, open house setting where citizens are invited to browse various displays and information.

The consultant team and steering committee want to hear the public's ideas on the options developed. After the workshop, the consultant team will continue to work with the steering committee toward a set of recommendations to improve the overall transportation system.

The final meeting for this project will be held in the future to present the findings of the transportation study. The timing of future meetings will be discussed at this public meeting.

Area residents and interested persons are encouraged to attend the workshop to learn more about the project, or to present your ideas for consideration during the final stages of the study process.

More information about this project is available by clicking on the "Grayling Area Transportation Study" at NEMCOG's Web site at www.nemcog.org, or by calling Nico Tucker, Transportation and Resource Planner for NEMCOG, at 989-732-3551.

CGCC announces birdhouse program winner

For the last several years, The Camp Grayling Conservation Club (CGCC) birdhouse program has provided materials, to make birdhouses, to fourth grade students in the Crawford AuSable School District. The first student birdhouse that produces hatchlings wins a brand new bicycle.

This year's winner is Ben Engbers, a student in Mrs. Feldhauser's fourth grade class. Ben resides with his parents, Todd and Julie, on Turner Trail in Grayling.

Julie Engbers called Luanne Shirkey, a CGCC representative, on May 22 to report the newly hatched birds. Shirkey verified that Ben indeed had hatchlings in his birdhouse, thus making him this year's winner.

Jim Reed, CGCC President, and Bob Smith, the Bicycle Shop owner, presented a brand new bike to Ben on May 31.

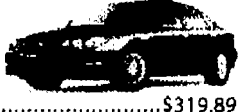

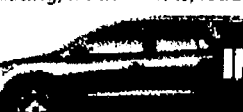

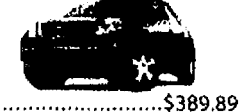

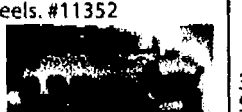

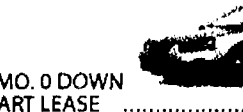

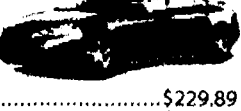

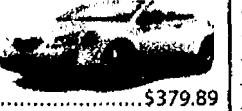

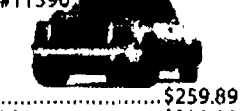

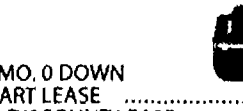

CGCC members received support from the Bicycle Shop, the teachers, the parents and the community in making the birdhouse program successful.

The CGCC also got support from numerous volunteers that assisted in putting the kits together and all the students that participated in this year's contest.

"CGCC strives to preserve our natural resources for future generations. We instill a conservation ethic in the children of our community by sparking an interest in the surrounding wild life and their habitat," said Shirkey.

Baseball team's playoff run ends with loss to Escanaba in regionals

■ Vikings fall to Eskymos 11-0 in Region 9-2 tournament semifinals at Benzie

by Caleb Casey
Senior Staff Writer

The Grayling Vikings, champions of this year's District 34-2 tournament, ended their baseball playoff run with an 11-0 loss to the Escanaba Eskymos during Saturday's Region 9-2 tournament at Benzie Central High School.

West Branch Ogemaw Heights defeated Big Rapids 10-0 in the first semifinal contest of the regional tournament. Grayling played Escanaba in the second semifinal match of the day.

In the top of the first, Grayling flied out and struck out twice for a one-two-three inning.

Escanaba led off the bottom of the first with a single to left center. A sacrifice bunt moved the runner to second base. The next Eskymo batter was hit by a pitch, putting runners at first and second. A successful double steal moved the runners to second and third. A ground ball to the shortstop resulted in the second out of the inning, and the runners stayed at second and third on the play. The next batter singled to right. One run scored. The runner that was at second base also tried to score, but a relay from right fielder Ethan Neuberger to first baseman Rocky McNamara to catcher Geo Bindschatel ended in a tag at home plate for the third out.

McNamara walked with one out in the top of the second inning. He was picked off at first base for the second out, and a strikeout ended the inning.

The Eskymos hit a leadoff double, and the next batter drove him in with a single up the middle. Escanaba bunted, and a throwing error on the play put runners at first and second.

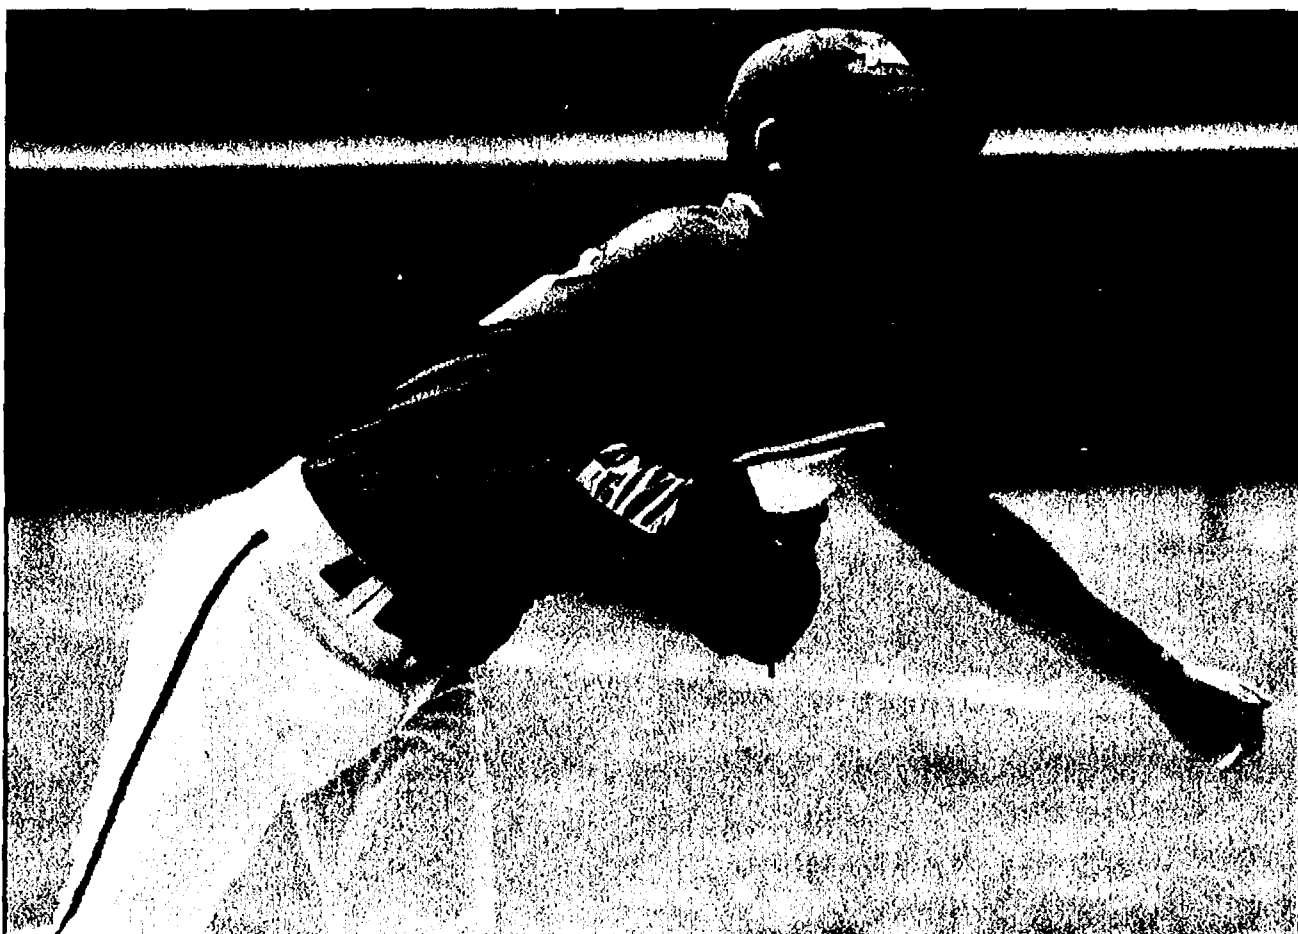

Escanaba bunted again, but Eric Ferrigan, the third baseman for GHS, caught the ball in the air for an out. The next batter lined out to McNamara, who threw to Richie Schreiber, the pitcher, for a double play force out at first base. The Eskymos led 2-0 after two innings.

Grayling struck out twice and

More than 250 cyclists compete in Hanson Hills Challenge

More than 250 cyclists competed in the 2008 Hanson Hills Challenge Mountain Bike Race on Sunday, June 1.

Justin Andre, Grayling Recreation Authority Director, said this year's race featured approximately 260 competitors.

"Two-hundred and sixty is a pretty good showing for a northern Michigan race, especially considering the gas prices," Andre said.

The Hanson Hills Challenge was coordinated by Fun Promotions LLC, a group that runs a variety of different outdoor races at many different venues. For the June 1 race in Grayling, Fun Promotions collected registration fees and paid GRA for use of the Hanson Hills trails, Andre said.

Andre, who competed in the race in one of the expert age divisions, said this year's event "was awesome. The course was holding up good, including three-quarters of a mile of new section put in just before the race. It was a beautiful day - conditions were pretty much perfect for that race."

Complete results of the 2008 Hanson Hills Challenge Mountain Bike Race are available on the Internet at www.funpromotions.com. From the Fun Promotions home page, click on the "Results" header and scroll down to "XC MT. Bike."

Redskins to host early sign-up event on Friday

The AuSable Football League (Grayling Redskins) is now accepting registrations for players and cheerleaders for the upcoming 2008 season. The league will host an early sign-up event from 6-8 p.m. on Friday, June 13, at Redskin Field, which is located at the Crawford County Fairgrounds. The event will be held in building three.

Redskins football and cheerleading squads are open to boys and girls in grades 3-8, ages 8-14.

Football players and cheerleaders can also sign up by filling out the attached form and returning it, with appropriate payment, to: Grayling AuSable Football League, Judy Morgan, P.O. Box 1089, Grayling, MI, 49738. Registration forms are also available at Sylvester's.

Physicals are required for AuSable Football League participants before they may practice. Practices are scheduled to begin on August 4.

If you have any questions, contact Bud or Judy Morgan at 348-2548.

Boys Track
 Coach: Matt Collins
JASON DRUDGE

"Jason has been a dominant runner for me all year long. Jason just finished his career with us by running an 11th place at the state finals in the mile. Jason's attitude and commitment in his sport is what every coach looks for," his coach said.

GRAYLING MIDDLE SCHOOL TRACK

The Grayling Middle School boys and girls track teams recently completed their 2008 season with first and third place finishes at the Lake Michigan Conference meet, an event held at Kalkaska this year.

"For the first time ever, Grayling Middle School was able to carry a first place trophy during their victory lap after the conference meet. It was the best end for the 8th graders' athletic careers, and it was the best way for the 7th graders to begin their track careers," Coach Samara Sabin said.

This year's GMS track squad, coached by Sabin and Renea Martin, featured about 60 runners. In five meets this season, the group won a total of 41 first place medals, 30 second place medals, 32 third place medals, and 74 fourth, fifth, and sixth place ribbons. Grayling won two of its meets this year.

"The runners this season really represented the definition of a team. The athletes supported each other on and off the track, and so did the rest of the school. You could actually sense the desire to do well when Grayling walked onto the track at a meet. They warmed up together, they stretched together, they cheered for each other, and they celebrated together," Coach Sabin said. "At each meet, our runners really made it known that Grayling was focused, determined, and ready to work hard. Our team spirit and desire definitely helped bring us (success) this year."

Baseball team's playoff run ends with loss to Escanaba grounded out to second base to end the top of the third inning.

Escanaba singled up the middle with one out. Schreiber and McNamara picked the runner off at first base for the second out. The next batter doubled to left, and a hit batsman put runners at first and second. A ground ball to Schreiber ended the inning.

Grayling trailed 2-0.

The Vikings struck out, flied out, and struck out in the top of the fourth inning.

Escanaba reached base on an error to start the bottom of the fourth. The next batter was hit by a pitch. A ground ball resulted in an out at first base, but the runners advanced to second and third. Grayling issued an intentional walk to the next batter to load the bases. A double drove in two runs. With runners at second and third, a sacrifice fly drove in another run. A ground ball to McNamara ended the inning. The Eskymos led 5-0.

Grayling grounded out and struck out twice in the top of the fifth inning.

Escanaba hit a leadoff single and used a sacrifice bunt to move the runner to second. Schreiber struck out the next batter for the second out of the inning. A successful hit and run play scored the runner from second base. A balk moved the runner from first to second, and he scored on a single to right field. Taylor Desenfans replaced Schreiber on the mound for the Vikings. Escanaba singled to left. A hit batsman loaded the bases. The next batter hit a grand slam home run to left field. The hit ended the game. Escanaba won 11-0 due to mercy rule.

Escanaba's pitcher finished with a no-hitter. He struck out 10 batters in five innings.

The Eskymos defeated Ogemaw Heights 5-1 in the regional championship game, according to the Michigan High School Athletic Association's Web site.

Grayling qualified for Saturday's regional tournament by winning the District 34-2 tournament on Saturday, May 31. The Vikings defeated the Benzie Central Huskies 3-1 in the semifinals. Grayling won the district championship game vs. Cadillac by a final score of 8-3.

The Vikings finished the season with a 21-15 overall record.

Geo Bindschatel bats for Grayling during Saturday's regional playoff game against the Escanaba Eskymos.

GRAYLING COUNTRY CLUB NEWS

Submitted by Donna Thomson Wednesday Ladies League

On Wednesday, June 4, we were all ready to go, even though it was cool and cloudy.

There was a mix-up in the handicap system and Chris and Josh worked very hard crunching all the numbers. Next week, all should be good to go. We will get our playbooks and then we will know who our opponents are for each Wednesday. Sherry Hanson worked very hard on our books, getting everything together for us and filling in for me in my absence. It was a huge job, but she got it done.

After we got in, there was a good taco luncheon buffet, with a choice of beef or chicken.

Lynda Hetrick, our "Rally for a Cure" chairperson, passed out a sheet for volunteers to sign up for the various jobs that need to be done to make it a success.

The results for today were, in Flight A, Kay Ellen King had a low net of 30 and Shelly Cohee had low puts of 15.

In Flight B, Sherry Hanson had a low net of 33 and low puts of 15.

In Flight C, Retalou Tobin (one of our new members) had a low net of 32. Diana Doremire had low puts of 14 and a chip-in on hole #1.

Our birdie tree is looking much prettier this year, with more birds on it, as Marilyn Hartman had a birdie on hole #7 and Jeanette Kitchen had one on hole #4.

Well, until next week, and hopefully warmer weather, that's all "fore" now.

FOX RUN GOLF

Thursday Ladies League

The standings for Thursday, June 5, are as follows.

In Flight 1, the wins were Upton and Ferguson with 61, Ostling and J. McKindles with 60, Baetens and Bradley with 58.5, Gust and Griffin with 48, Marshall and Hall with 46 and K.Freer and Longendyke with 41.5.

Ostling had a low net score of 35 and a birdie on holes #1 and #5. Upton had a birdie on hole #3. Marshall had a par on hole #6.

In Flight 2, Coors and B. Freer had a score of 72, Lederman and Bailey had 56.5, Baker and Baldwin had 52, DeMassa and Willikins had 51, Sullivan and M. McKindles had 41 and Finkbeiner and DiPonio had 39.5. DiPonio had a low net score of 35.

In Flight 3, the team of Koutnik and Summerix came in with 71, Nester and Close with 66, Patchin and Deloge with 61, Hess and Spangler with 43.5, Kelsey and Funky with 42.5 and Hanson and Walper with 32. Summerix had a low net score of 30.

2007 WATER QUALITY REPORT FOR THE CITY OF GRAYLING

This report covers the drinking water quality for The City of Grayling for the calendar year 2007. This information is a snapshot of the quality of the water that we provided to you in 2007. Included are details about where your water comes from, what it contains, and how it compares to Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) and state standards.

Your water comes from 2 groundwater wells. One well is located off of Conline Dr. (Well 1) and the other is off of Roberts Rd (Well 2). In 2003 the State performed an assessment of our source water and determined Well 1 to have a low susceptibility to contamination and Well 2 to have a moderately low susceptibility. You may obtain a copy of this assessment report from City Hall, 1020 City Boulevard, Grayling, MI 49738.

Contaminants and their presence in water: Drinking Water, including bottled water, may reasonably be expected to contain at least small amounts of some contaminants. The presence of contaminants does not necessarily indicate that water poses a health risk. More information about contaminants and potential health effects can be obtained by calling the EPA's Safe Drinking Water Hotline (800-426-4791).

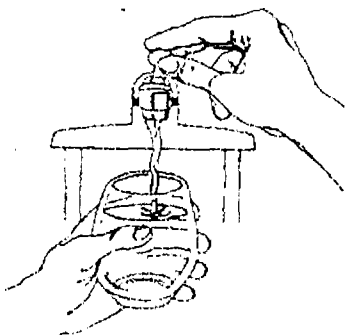

Vulnerability of sub-populations: Some people may be more vulnerable to contaminants in drinking water than the general population. Immuno-compromised persons such as persons with cancer undergoing chemotherapy, persons who have undergone organ transplants, people with HIV/AIDS or other immune system disorders, some elderly, and infants can be particularly at risk from infections. These people should seek advice about drinking water from their health care providers. EPA/CDC guidelines on appropriate means to lessen the risk of infection by Cryptosporidium and other microbial contaminants are available from the Safe Drinking Water Hotline (800-426-4791).

Sources of drinking water: The sources of drinking water (both tap water and bottled water) include rivers, lakes, streams, ponds, reservoirs, springs, and wells. Our water comes from wells. As water travels over the surface of the land or through the ground, it dissolves naturally-occurring minerals and, in some cases, radioactive material, and can pick up substances resulting from the presence of animals or from human activity.

- Contaminants that may be present in source water include:
 - Microbial contaminants, such as viruses and bacteria, which may come from sewage treatment plants, septic systems, agricultural livestock operations and wildlife.
 - Inorganic contaminants, such as salts and metals, which can be naturally occurring or result from urban stormwater runoff, industrial or domestic waste water discharges, oil and gas production, mining or farming.
 - Pesticides and herbicides, which may come from a variety of sources such as agriculture and residential uses.
 - Radioactive contaminants, which can be naturally occurring or be the result of oil and gas production and mining activities.
 - Organic chemical contaminants, including synthetic and volatile organic chemicals, which are by-products of industrial processes and petroleum production, and can also come from gas stations, urban stormwater runoff, and septic systems.

In order to ensure that tap water is safe to drink, EPA prescribes regulations that limit the amount of certain contaminants in water provided by public water systems Food and Drug Administration regulations establish limits for contaminants in bottled water which provide the same protection for public health.

Water Quality Data

The table below lists all the drinking water contaminants that we detected during the 2007 calendar year. The presence of these contaminants in the water does not necessarily indicate that the water poses a health risk. Unless otherwise noted, the data presented in this table is from testing done January 1 - December 31, 2007. The State allows us to monitor for certain contaminants less than once per year because the concentrations of these contaminants are not expected to vary significantly from year to year. All of the data is representative of the water quality, but some are more than one year old.

Terms and abbreviations used below:

- Maximum Contaminant Level Goal (MCLG): The level of a contaminant in drinking water below which there is no known or expected risk to health. MCLGs allow for a margin of safety.
- Maximum Contaminant Level (MCL): The highest level of a contaminant that is allowed in drinking water. MCLs are set as close to the MCLGs as feasible using the best available treatment technology.
- N/A: not applicable ND: not detectable at testing limit ppb: parts per billion or micrograms per liter ppm: parts per million or milligrams per liter AVE: average
- Action Level (AL): The concentration of a contaminant which, if exceeded, triggers treatment or other requirements that a water system must follow.

Samples Collected at the Wellhouse:

Regulated Chemical Contaminants	MCL	MCLG	Our Water	Sample Date	Violation Yes / No	Typical Source of Contaminants
Fluoride (ppm)	4	4	0.84 - 1.28	09/06/2007	No	Added for to help prevent tooth decay

Unregulated Chemical Contaminants ²	Our Water	Sample Date	Violation Yes / No	Typical Source of Contaminants
Sodium (ppm)	4	09/06/2007	N/A	Erosion of natural deposits
Sulfate (ppm)	0 - 6 AVE = 3	09/06/2007	N/A	Erosion of natural deposits
Hardness (ppm)	134 - 148 AVE = 141	09/06/2007	N/A	Erosion of natural deposits

² Unregulated contaminants are those for which EPA has not established drinking water standards. Monitoring helps EPA to determine where certain contaminants occur and whether it needs to regulate those contaminants.

Samples Collected in the Distribution System:

Contaminants Subject to an Action Level	Action Level, MCL, or MRDL	Our Water	Sample Date	Number of Samples Above AL	Typical Source of Contaminants
Lead (ppb) ³	AL = 15	0	07/31/06	0	Corrosion of household plumbing systems; Erosion of natural deposits
Copper (ppm) ³	AL = 1.3	0.097	07/31/06	0	Corrosion of household plumbing systems; Erosion of natural deposits; Leaching from wood preservatives

³ 90 percent of the samples collected were at or below the level reported for our water.

Monitoring and Reporting Requirements:

The State and EPA require us to test our water on a regular basis to ensure its safety. We met all the monitoring and reporting requirements for 2007.

We, the City of Grayling employees, make every effort to provide quality water to every City of Grayling water tap. We ask that all our customers help us protect our water sources, which are the heart of our community, our way of life, and our children's future. In part of a continuing effort to protect our water sources the City of Grayling began the process of implementing a Wellhead protection program in 2003. A Wellhead protection program is a planning and management approach to protect groundwater supply systems from contamination by identifying and managing potential sources of contamination that can affect water supply wells.

We will update this report annually and will keep you informed of any problems that may occur throughout the year, as they happen. Copies are available at City Hall, 1020 City Boulevard, Grayling, MI 49738, or this report can be viewed on the Internet at www.cityofgrayling.org. This report will not be sent to you.

We invite public participation in decisions that affect drinking water quality. City Council meetings are held the second and last Monday of each month, 7:30PM at Grayling City Hall, 1020 City Boulevard, Grayling, MI 49738. For more information about your water, or the contents of this report, contact Chad Beckett at 989-348-2131 or send email to dpw@cityofgrayling.org. For more information about safe drinking water, visit the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency at www.epa.gov/safewater/.

CRAWFORD COUNTY TIRE CLEANUP

Saturday, June 21, 2008

8:00 A.M. to 2:00 P.M.

Crawford County Courthouse Parking Lot

Residents and property owners of Crawford County may dispose of junk tires at no cost to them. If you have SIX (6) or fewer tires you may drop them off during the cleanup. Seven (7) or more tires require an approval form to be submitted and approved by your respective Township Supervisor or Grayling City Manager before you can bring tires in for disposal. If you have tires to dispose of and you do not have the means to load or transport them to the cleanup please call your township office or the Grayling City Office with your information before the day of the cleanup, we will do everything possible to pick up the tires and haul them into the cleanup.

Please understand that the money to pay for this project comes from various agencies within Crawford County and is limited to tires that are being removed from within this county only. We reserve the right to check driver's licenses to verify residency. If you are a property owner from Crawford County and live outside the county a copy of a recent tax bill with the same name as your driver's license may be required to dispose of tires.

Tires may be on rims and size is not an issue. It is possible that this is the last free tire cleanup for the county so please do not put off disposing of any tires you may have. We reserve the right to refuse your tires if we exceed capacity on the semi-trailers. Businesses selling or installing tires must pre-register to dispose of tires. We also reserve the right to limit the number of tires taken in and may initiate a charge for disposal by commercial tire businesses.

Volunteers are welcome please call Grayling Township Supervisor Terry Wright at 989-348-4361 or Beaver Creek Township Supervisor Lee Riley at 989-275-8878 for information. C.A.S.D. and Gerrish-Higgins students needing Community Service time are also welcome to volunteer for credit.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING ON PROPOSED 2008-2009 BUDGET

The family of eagles nesting along US-27 is gone. One eaglet was found dead near the bottom of the nest tree, two eaglets are missing and the two parents have left the nesting site. A DNR aerial survey of eagle nests, after a windstorm on May 31, found the nest empty. The eaglet found on the ground was decomposed, leading the DNR officials to believe the eaglet was killed before the windstorm. The two other eaglets were not found and caused speculation that they may have been taken by someone.

The eaglets were definitely not old enough to fly yet and the two adults have not been sighted by the nest recently.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Black Cherry, Gingersnap & Pecan Parfait

8 gingersnaps
1/2 cup pecan halves, toasted if desired
2(6 oz. each) containers non-fat black cherry yogurt

2/3 cup fat-free whipped topping
2 kiwi fruit, peeled and chopped
1 black cherry for garnish (optional)

Prep Time: 10 Min
Chill Time: 30 Min-
2 hours

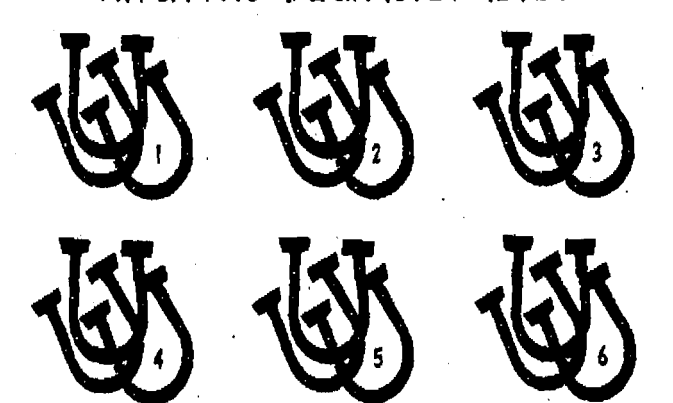

In a medium-size, resealable plastic bag, combine ginger-snaps and 1/4 cup pecans; seal bag. With a rolling pin or large heavy spoon, gently pound mixture to crumble cookies and pecans. (The mixture should be somewhat coarse, not finely ground.) Set aside. In a small bowl, mix all yogurt together. Add whipped topping and gently fold into blend. Do not over mix. To assemble in individual 6- to 8-ounce glass serving pieces, spoon 2 tablespoons gingersnap-pecan mixture into bottom of each glass. Top each with 1/4 cup yogurt mixture. Portion the chopped kiwi fruit into each glass and top with about another 1/4 cup yogurt mixture to use all that's remaining. Top each serving with remaining gingersnap-pecan mixture. Coarsely chop remaining 1/4 cup pecan halves and sprinkle on top for garnish. Refrigerate parfaits at least 30 minutes or up to two hours. Serve chilled.

HOROSCOPES

For the week of June 12, 2008

Gee, Capricorn, getting the chore list finished this week will feel like pulling teeth. Do something fun to rally the troops and get the motivation going.

December 22-January 19

The less you say this week, the better, Aries. Mum is the word. Hold all confidences firm and reveal only what you must. A change in venue is no reason to panic.

March 21-April 19

Go figure, Cancer. Gloom and doom is all around you, but fortunately, you don't have to take part. Try to look on the bright side, and things may not be as bad as they seem.

June 22-July 22

Avenues of opportunity open, Libra. You must choose your path carefully. A friend's promotion is just the spark to get your creative juices flowing.

September 23-October 22

Travel is on tap, Aquarius. If you give a little and be open minded, you will have a ball. A sneak peek into the social event of the year is up for grabs. Go for it.

January 20-February 18

Nary a day goes by that you don't think of that special someone from long ago. It may be time to look them up. Taurus. This is the week to reconnect.

April 20-May 20

Life turns topsy-turvy and you have to make some changes to restore order. Family members make an odd rule. There is no need for you to challenge it, Leo.

July 23-August 22

Sunnier times are coming, Scorpio. Seize the moment because it won't last long. A gargantuan effort at work will not go unnoticed.

October 23-November 21

All hope is not lost on a project at work, Pisces. Don't throw in the towel just yet. Focus and keep at it. You just might make it work. Good luck.

February 19-March 20

Guess what, Gemini. Mischief lies in wait for you, and you better had a sense of humor, else you are going to have a terrible time. A trip is in store.

May 21-June 21

The more you let things slide this week, the worse it will be, Virgo. Don't let anyone bully you into doing something you are uncomfortable with. Hold firm to your principles.

August 23-September 22

Yes, Sagittarius, reaching for the stars may seem silly this week with the way things are, but do it and you just might be surprised by the outcome.

ADOPT A PET

Seven Lab/Pit Bull Puppies

These seven little Lab/Pit Bull mixed pups are looking for loving new homes. They have just turned 8 weeks old, have had their first puppy shots and have been wormed. These are sweet, happy, roly poly babies with loads of love to give and lots to learn. We are looking for adopters who have the time and desire to train a puppy.
